

The Use of AI for Research in Community Extension

February 12-13, 2024

Via Zoom

The Asian Association for Academic Integrity, Inc. (AAAI), with SEC Registration Number CN201619469, is inviting you to participate in "The Use of AI for Research in Community Extension" on February 12-13, 2024 via Zoom Teleconferencing.

Explore the transformative realm of AI in community extension research with us! Join our workshop where we delve into the dynamic fusion of technology and community-driven research. Discover how AI augments and refines the process, creating new avenues for impactful change. Together, let's uncover the innovative strategies and tools that redefine the landscape of community-focused research. Don't miss this opportunity to be at the forefront of shaping a future where AI empowers and amplifies our efforts in community extension.

The program will be facilitated by Dr. Genaro V. Japos, founder of Asean Research Organization.

Training Objectives:

1. To create AI tools tailored for addressing specific challenges in the Philippine communities, offering practical solutions in areas such as agriculture, health, and education;
2. To implement training programs within universities to equip students and faculty with AI skills; and
3. To create AI-based tools for evaluating the impact of community extension initiatives, providing universities in the Philippines with accurate metrics to assess program effectiveness and make informed decisions for future endeavors.
