

Best Practices in the Teaching of Research: Blending Pedagogical Techniques & Smart Technologies Under the New Normal Environment July 27-28, 2020

Considering safety and health at the paramount, the COVID-19 pandemic has become an impetus for schools, universities, and colleges to reimagine new forms of education as a substitute to the traditional, physical teacher-student interaction. An effective research instruction requires an expert understanding of the 21st century pedagogy-technology nexus and the complications brought about by these times. As blended learning and emerging technologies in education takes renewed interest, how can a teacher of research unlearn traditional, old modes of education and acquire new skills of blended, online learning engagement that blend pedagogy that develops the student's critical and strategic knowledge with smart technologies that mold their procedural skills?

With this in mind, the Asian Society of Teachers for Research Inc. invites you to a webinar, Best Practices in the Teaching of Research: Blending Pedagogical Techniques and Smart Technologies Under the New Normal Environment on July 27-28, 2020 (9:00 am -5:00 pm, daily).

OBJECTIVES OF THE TRAINING-WORKSHOP:

- (1) To apply best practices in teaching research that result to publication of outputs;
- (2) To adopt smart technologies in literature search, evaluation of articles, documentation, plagiarism, grammar and vocabulary; and
- (3) To apply state-of-the-art techniques in thesis writing, oral defenses and research translation suited to the new normal conditions.
