

Training-Workshop on the Global Strategies in Journal, Author, and Article Citation

March 29-31, 2023

Selah Pods Hotel Manila, Pasay City, Philippines

Article citations, author indices, and journal impact factors have become the quantitative metric in defining the quality of articles, reputation of authors, and reliability of journals. From the hiring, tenure, and promotion of professors, securing of research funding and grants, publishing in high-impact journals, indexing of journals in top databases to even determining the world's top ranked universities, citations, h-indices, and journal impact factors have been used as an objective reference in most of academic and scientific decisions. In a research environment where evaluation have revolved around these quantitative measures, how can researchers and journal editors get their articles and journals cited?

Capacitating every research author and journal editor through skills development, the Asian Society of Teachers for Research Inc. invites you to the face-to-face Training-Workshop on the Global Strategies in Journal, Article, and Author Citation on March 29-31, 2023 (9:00 am -5:00 pm) at the Selah Pods Hotel Manila, Philippines.
