

International Training-Workshop on Publishing Qualitative Research Results in High-Impact Journals

May 28-30, 2018

Belian Hotel, Tagbilaran City, Philippines

With most training-workshops in scientific writing for publication focused on the quantitative/descriptive design, there is a clamor for courses in the effective writing for publication of research articles in the qualitative kind. Both complex and multimethod in focus, qualitative research is exploratory in nature and seeks to explain the “hows” and “whys” of a particular phenomenon. As writing qualitative research articles is considered to be a creative endeavor with unlimited possibilities, how can qualitative researchers meet the standardized expectations of academic journals to merit its publication?

Aimed to capacitate every research author through skills development, the Asian Society of Teachers Inc. in cooperation with the Philippine School Doha invite you to the International Training-Workshop on the Publishing Qualitative Research Results in High-Impact Journals with Resource Speakers, DR.
