

Asian Conference on Reviews of the Research Literature (RRL)

May 10-12, 2021

Via Zoom Teleconferencing

Theme: “Empirical Evidence from Scientific Literature as a Basis for Research.”

The International Association of Multidisciplinary Research, Inc. (IAMRI, Inc.) is inviting you to join the Asian Conference on Reviews of the Research Literature (RRL) with the theme: “Empirical Evidence from Scientific Literature as Basis for Research” on May 10-12, 2021 via Zoom Teleconferencing. The objectives are: (1) to recognize the importance of reviews of the research literature as a distinct genre of the scientific writing; (2) to learn techniques in the writing of RRL; (3) to identify the research gaps of research topic; and (4) to formulate hypothesis from the research literature.

RRL Serves four purposes: to determine what has been discovered in a research topic, the research gaps, direction for further research, and hypothesis development.

TOPICS

Education
Social Science
Business and Management
Science and Technology
Health Science
Literature
Action Research
Inter and Multidisciplinary Studies, among others.

You are invited to the first RRL conference in Asia. Articles can focus on literature review, research review, systematic review, research gaps review, meta-analysis, among others.
