

Application and Ethics of Chatbots in Research

July 17-18, 2023

Via Zoom Teleconferencing

Chatbots have gained significant attention in various fields, including research, due to their potential to enhance communication, gather data, and streamline processes. The training will explore the application and ethics of chatbots in research. It will discuss the benefits and challenges associated with using chatbots, examine their potential applications in different research domains, and address ethical considerations surrounding their deployment. This training aims to provide a comprehensive overview of the current state of chatbots in research and highlight their implications for the scientific community.

The International Association of Research Ethics Across Disciplines, Inc. (IAREAD), with SEC Registration Number CN201919199 is cordially inviting you to participate the webinar on “Application and Ethics of Chatbots in Research” on July 17-18, 2023, via Zoom Teleconferencing.
