

Thesis Advising & Paneling Techniques in the Era of AI

August 31, 2026 – September 2, 2026

Selah Pods Hotel, Pasay City, Philippines

The evolving role of AI in academic research by clarifying its ethical boundaries and the tools students now use in literature reviews, analysis, and drafting. It advances AI-aware advising through process-based guidance, critical evaluation, and the cultivation of AI literacy. It further strengthens thesis quality assurance by promoting AI-resilient evaluation frameworks that emphasize conceptual mastery, synthesis, and rigorous defense. Finally, it aligns institutions on AI disclosure and detection protocols, ensuring transparent citation practices and informed use of AI detectors despite their limitations.

The International Association of Research Ethics Across Disciplines, Inc. (IAREAD), with SEC Registration Number CN201919199 is cordially inviting you to participate in the training workshop; on “Thesis Advising & Paneling Techniques in the Era of AI” on August 31, 2026 – September 2, 2026, at the Selah Pods Hotel, Pasay City, Philippines.

The program will be conducted and facilitated by Dr. Genaro V. Japos, Founder of Asean Research Organization.

The training objectives are to:

1. Understand the AI Landscape in Academic Research Align advisors and panelists on how students are utilizing generative AI and the ethical boundaries of these tools in research;
2. Adapt Advising Methodologies for AI-Assisted Students Equip advisors with strategies to guide students effectively, ensuring intellectual ownership and critical thinking are maintained;
3. Standardize Paneling and Evaluation Frameworks Establish clear, updated rubrics and defense protocols to fairly evaluate theses developed in an AI-rich environment; and
4. Implement Policy, Detection, and Disclosure Protocols Provide practical guidelines on institutional policies, AI disclosure, and the limitations of AI detection software.
