

TRAINING-WORKSHOP ON PUBLISHING IN SCOPUS-INDEXED JOURNALS: BEST PRACTICES AND EFFECTIVE WRITING STRATEGIES
August 27-29, 2026 | Castle Peak Hotel, Cebu City, Philippines

The International Association of Scholarly Publishers, Editors and Reviewers (IASPER) with the SEC Registration No. CN201433407 is inviting you to participate in The Training-Workshop on Publishing in Scopus-Indexed Journals: Best Practices and Effective Writing Strategies on August 27-29, 2026 at Castle Peak Hotel, Cebu City, Philippines.

RATIONALE

In today's global academic landscape, publishing in reputable Scopus-indexed journals has become a critical indicator of research quality, academic excellence, and international visibility. Universities, funding agencies, and accreditation bodies increasingly recognize high-quality scholarly publications as essential evidence of research productivity, institutional competitiveness, faculty promotion, and global collaboration. At the same time, researchers face new challenges brought about by increasingly rigorous publication standards, research integrity issues, and the responsible use of artificial intelligence in scholarly writing.

To succeed in this dynamic publishing environment, researchers must possess not only strong scientific writing skills but also a comprehensive understanding of journal selection, publication ethics, manuscript preparation, peer review, and strategies for maximizing the visibility and impact of their research. Developing these competencies is essential to transforming quality research into internationally recognized publications.

This intensive training-workshop is designed to equip researchers, faculty members, graduate students, and academic professionals with practical knowledge and hands-on strategies for publishing in Scopus-indexed journals. Participants will learn current best practices in academic writing, responsible AI-assisted manuscript development, ethical publishing, journal selection, manuscript submission, and effective responses to peer reviewers. Through expert guidance and practical exercises, participants will strengthen their publication readiness and enhance their ability to contribute meaningful, ethical, and impactful research to the global scholarly community.

The training objectives are to:

1. Understand the evolving global landscape, quality standards, and ethical practices in Scopus-indexed publishing;
2. Identify reputable Scopus-indexed journals by evaluating journal quality, scope, indexing status, and publication ethics;
3. Develop high-quality, publication-ready manuscripts using effective academic writing strategies and the responsible use of AI-assisted and digital research tools;
4. Prepare, submit, and revise manuscripts in accordance with international publishing standards and peer review requirements; and
5. Enhance the visibility, credibility, and scholarly impact of published research through ethical dissemination and researcher profiling.
